The Level Of The Desert

What is the "level of the desert" according to the wisdom of Kabbalah?

The wisdom of Kabbalah according to its definition is "the revelation of the Creator to the created being in this world." This means that while man is living in his body, on the level of animate, he needs to attain the level of "the desert," the level of "man" from the linguistic meaning "similar to the Creator"; that is, similar to Him in the attribute of bestowal and love existing external to him.

This is to say that during the time that he is now living in this world, he needs to try, as quickly as possible, to discover that system where he exists, in the attributes of bestowal and love, in an interrelationship with the rest of the other souls. This is compulsory for those whose point in the heart has awakened, for those who try to feel his connection to spirituality.
