Where Do I Turn?

I constantly need to search for how to receive the importance of connection from the environment.

I have two inclinations: a natural inclination for myself and an artificial inclination from outside of me, towards connection. I need to constantly search for how to receive impressions from the environment and to receive from it the importance of connection and the revelation of the Creator. If I succeed in that, then I succeed in discovering the connection between us. To the extent of the revelation of the connection, the Creator is revealed.
