Envy, Craving, and Honor

How does envy, craving, and honor remove me from this world to the spiritual world?

“Envy, craving, and honor removes a person from this world.” The environment needs to arouse me to advance, to give me the importance of the goal and if it isn’t this way, it’s a sign that the environment isn’t good or that I am not connected to it enough.

I must connect to the correct environment so that it will give me the importance so that each moment I think where I am, why I am not advancing and others are. If everyone is advancing and I’m not, that’s envy. If everyone already feels the spiritual world and I don’t, that’s craving.

If everyone is great and I am nothing, that’s honor. I need to build the correct relation to the society in order to receive from them the possibility to advance.

We need to make corrections and prevent all the catastrophes that occur in the world as it is written for us by Baal HaSulam at the end of the Preface to the Book of Zohar, that all the suffering that happens in the world is because Israel is not executing their corrections on time. Israel, straight to the Creator, is each one who exists in the world no matter what his origin is, who has the ability to correct himself, who has received an awakening, and it doesn't matter on what level he is.
