Revelation To His Creatures

When a decision is made from within common love, one begins to feel the Creator.

Our work is to rise above the ego, not to try to contend with it. We must take the force of the Light and rise above the ego, as if it doesn't exist. We understand that the Creator brings us this layer of ego, the Aviut (coarseness), and we want to exist above it. I don't annul the ego or erase it; otherwise, I won't ascend. Rather, I will rise above it.

Love covers all crimes. Love is called that I accept my friend's thoughts and he accepts mine, and that's the way we reach a decision in the group. It is decision from common love, which is a higher level than common hate. If you reach a decision from within common love, you will discover in it the third component, i.e., the Creator. You will feel the deficiency of the Creator or that He is already there, but you will feel Him.
