Reading for the Correction of the World

Is it worthwhile to read The Book of Zohar even without the correct intention?

If a person goes towards correction, the wisdom of Kabbalah assists him. The remedy that is in The Book of Zohar begins to operate on the person well before the person feels the influence or is aware of it. One of the means of advancement is books. Thus, of course reading The Book of Zohar even with the intention for self betterment does good and pulls the Surrounding Light. All of humanity needs to move in the direction of the goal of creation, and it's desirable that each one has contact with authentic works even if the point in the heart has not yet been discovered in him.
