Internal Dissemination

What is the best way to disseminate?

What is the best way to disseminate during the Book Fair Week in order to connect and climb up to the next spiritual level?

During the Book Fair Week, people should be able to feel the power of connection between us, and this power of connection will "buy" them all. No one can stand against the power of connection, because this is the one thing that is really missing in humanity's internality. If everyone would feel that we have the power of unity in us, that we connect between us, and that in this connection there is an Upper illumination, by that we have done the best possible dissemination.

No matter how many books we sell or give as a gift, the dissemination is internal and passes from soul to soul; man himself cannot explain why he feels certain things. The most important thing is to be equipped with the power of unity and the love of friends. This is the real dissemination.
