We Will Do and We Will Hear

We will do whatever is possible so that the Surrounding Light will act on us.

It is written, "We will do and we will hear." Don't be smart but perform acts, and by doing this you will feel the change from within you. The acts are performed where there is free choice, since there is no other possibility. You must be in submission towards the group and appreciate them as much as possible, and through them you will receive the change. You will suddenly want to be connected to the society. From within the calculation that you begin to make towards the society, from within this inclination, you will begin to feel the revelation of the Creator.

Try to perform good deeds for the group; you do this and the Light already influences you. "Do" the act you can do, since this is in Malchut (Kingdom). "You will hear," doesn't depend on you. That's in Bina (Wisdom), and you will receive it through the Light that Reforms; just do it.

Messiah

What is he, the Messiah, who should arrive on a white donkey, and what is the meaning of "Messiah"?

The Messiah is not a man of flesh and blood, but the general Upper Light of Ein Sof (Infinity), Light of the inclusive "Yechida." Thus the spreading of the wisdom of Kabbalah in the world is called, "the Messiah's horn," since it prepares the Kli (vessel) for the creation of the "Messiah." And why does he need to arrive on a white donkey? Because he whitens the substance (our desire to receive).
