From Bad to Good

We must explain to the world why there is bad and how to get to good.

The connection network between us is revealed as the feeling of crisis, ambiguity and confusion in the world. We must explain to everyone, as to small children, why they feel bad and what we must do in order to feel good.

In order to reach good, we must progress in mutual guarantee between all mankind because only in this way will we be compatible to that same network and only in this way will we feel good. We need to be compatible to the connection network that is revealed between us before the continuation of its revelation. Only in this way will we succeed. Everything depends on our preparation.
