This Is All We Need!

The most important thing that all of us and each one of us have to try to do, using all the artificial means (meaning against our desire), is to evoke a “need” to be included in the group. Each of us has to convince himself that the group, or its inner spiritual part, is in a completely corrected state, and this is the “place” where the Creator becomes revealed.

This place is already ready and waiting for you to be included in it. To the degree you do include yourself in it, you reveal the Upper World in that place.

Every person who tunes into it will receive everything: the spiritual world, eternity, perfection, and the Upper Force. All of this is there, inside it! This “place” is in the state of the final correction, Gmar Tikkun, and all the friends exist there as the greatest people of the generation, above everything. However, in order to make it easier for me to become included into that place, I ask everyone to influence me, and that is called an environment.

In other words, there is an environment and there is a place. The environment has to push me so I will get inside that corrected place. Moreover, the environment can be lying to me at all times, and that doesn't matter. After all, they are not inside yet either, but are somewhere along the way. I am being deceived in Lo Lishma as if I aspire to bestowal and love.

However, the environment constantly makes me believe that this is necessary. As it “works on me,” I suddenly acquire the force to carry out this action and enter that “place.”

This place is already prepared ahead of time. We are already in it, in the third, final corrected state. Therefore, all we need is this:

1. Every person has to look for ways to convince himself to become included inside the group, into the “place” where he will reveal the Upper World, the Creator, the entire true reality.
2. Everyone has to “play” the corrected society for one another, which invigorates everyone and pushes them to become included in it, cancelling themselves before it.
