Everyone Will Hear the Creator's Voice

The first degree of mutual guarantee is the initial degree of the spiritual ladder. This entire ladder is the implementation of the levels of mutual guarantee: from 0% to 100%, the 125th degree. At the Convention we are trying to reach the initial condition of mutual guarantee on the simplest level, and to hold on to it at least temporarily.

This is possible if we all desire it passionately and are able to transmit this aspiration to one another. Only a small fraction of the people will be able to attain this state consciously, while the rest will join them. We are connected together in a spiritual scheme, a Partzuf in the form of a pyramid that has a peak (men from 20 to 60 years old whose might is 60 x 10,000) and lower layers (called the elderly, women, and children). However, eventually we all unite together in one group (nation) that "stands at the foot of Mount Sinai."

When the innermost part, the "men between 20 and 60 years old" take the mutual guarantee upon them, then all the others, the newcomers, join them. Everyone becomes included in one whole and is deemed "one nation," which receives the spiritual revelation. It is written that the entire nation heard the Creator's voice from Mount Sinai. However, the innermost group is the first to take on the actual condition of mutual guarantee.

Following the Law of Equivalence of Form

Question: When people come to the Convention and see the great work and preparations that were done, will we be able to revoke the differences between us and feel total equality?

Dr. Laitman's Answer: Everything that is now being prepared for the Convention all over the world together with us is being done from the bottom of people's hearts; we are all in one single vessel or desire. People who are far away from us and do not have the opportunity to come are still able to support us in thought. They transmit their desire to us and the aspiration to be closer.

What we end up with is the right combination, arranged by the Creator, where everyone unites together. We lack just one thing: the common thought about mutual guarantee!

Forget about all the external differences. In the end everything must become part of one whole, one common mutual guarantee. We have to become "as one man with one heart" together with all of our friends all over the world. As soon as we achieve the first feeling of contact, the spiritual quality of connection, then inside it the Creator will immediately be revealed according to the law of equivalence of form.
